Cadiz, March 29. N. S.

EIght Men of War are fitting out here to be ſent to the Weſt-Indies, and ſome Land-Soldiers are to be put on board them to reinforce the Spaniſh Forces in thoſe Parts. 'Tis ſaid, they will ſhortly begin to fit out the Galeons that are deſigned to the Weſt-Indies the next Summer. Our laſt Advices from Ceuta ſay, the Moors continue before that Place, but that they have lately loſt a great number of their Men by Sickneſs, which together with the want they begin to find of Ammunition, and the good Defence of the Beſieged, will in all appearance oblige them to raiſe the Siege.

Madrid, April 8. The Marquis de Hartcourt, Ambaſſador from France, had Audience of Leave of the King and Queen on the 30th paſt, being conducted by Don Carlos Caſtillo with the uſual Ceremonies; And the next day Monſieur Blacour, who is to reſide here on the part of that Crown, had his firſt Audience. The Counteſs of Berlips, who was First Lady of the Bedchamber to the Queen, parted from hence the firſt Inſtant for Flanders, where the King has given her a conſiderable Eſtate. On the firſt Inſtant the Court removed to the Eſcurial, but the King and Queen intend to return hither the next week. The King's Confeſſor is removed from his Employment on account of ſome diſreſpectful Words he ſpoke of the King, and a Capuchin Frier, who was his particular Friend, is baniſhed to the Indies for the ſame Offence. Don Domingo Perlas, Inquiſitor of the Court, is baniſhed from Toledo; And the Duke of Monteleon, Maſter of the Horſe to the Queen, is likewiſe fallen into diſgrace at Court. The Duke de los Arcos has lately taken Poſſeſſion of the Dignity of Grandee of Spain. The Biſhops of Avila and Palencia died ſome days ago. The former is ſucceeded by Don Gregorio Solorſano, Counſellor in the Council of Caſtile; But the King has not yet diſpoſed of the other Biſhoprick. The Reverſion of the Office of General of the Gallies of Naples, is given to the Duke of Silva, Brother to the Duke of Paſtrana.

Warſaw, April 10. The King of Poland continues at Bielau. He gave Orders on the 7th Inſtant, that the Swediſh Reſident ſhould leave this Place in Twenty four hours, and depart the Kingdom; His Meſſage was delivered by the Crown Marſhal, upon which the Reſident deſired he might continue here incognito, in regard his Character is to the Republick as well as to the King, and that no ſuch Orders have been ſignified to him on the part of the Senate, or elſe that he might retire to Thoorn or Dantzick; but this was refuſed him. The Biſhop of Raab arrived here yeſterday from Vienna; He has Orders from the Emperor, to offer his Mediation to the King of Poland for adjuſting the Differences between him and the King of Sweden, and 'tis hoped that through his Endeavours, and the good Offices of the other Princes and States that have interpoſed in this Matter, things may be brought to an Accommodation.

Dantzick, April 17. The Senate of this City are often aſſembled, to prepare Inſtructions for the Deputies they are about ſending to the Court of France. A Body of 4000 of the King of Poland's Saxon Forces are ſhortly expected at Colebke, about two miles diſtant from hence, where they are to encamp under the Command of General Brandt, which giving ſome Jealouſie to this City, the Magiſtrates have ordered a ſtrict Guard to be kept, and are raiſing Soldiers to reinforce their Garriſon. They write from Warſaw, that the Sieur Warſtager, Reſident of Sweden, in purſuance of the Orders he received from the King of Poland, had left that Place, and is returning home; But that the Polanders are generally enclined to continue the Peace between them and the Suedes, and appear very deſirous of holding a Diet on Horſeback.

Coningsbergh, April 16. General Fleming paſſed lately through this Place, going to wait upon the King of Poland at Warſaw. The Letters from the Saxon Camp before Riga ſay, the Duina being quite free from Ice, the Saxons were making ſeveral Bridges of Boats over that River; That they continue to keep the Town of Riga cloſely blocked up, but that no Action has paſſed there ſince the taking of the Dunamunder Schans, and 'twas diſcourſed that a Ceſſation of Arms for 6 weeks would ſhortly be agreed upon, that in the mean time a Negociation may be carried on for accommodating Matters between the Kings of Sweden and Poland.

Vienna, April 14. The Imperial Court will remove from hence in few days to Laxemburgh, and will continue there till the beginning of June, againſt which time the Elector and Electoreſs Palatine are expected here. The Imperial Regiments that are ordered to the Frontiers of Saxony continue their March, and 'tis ſaid they are to obſerve the Motions of the Saxon Troops. Directions are given for changing the Garriſons in Hungary and Sileſia. The Turkiſh Ambaſſador continues his Conferences with the Emperor's Miniſters, for adjuſting the Matters in Diſpute between the Germans and the Turks concerning the Poſſeſſion of the Town of Novi and its Dependencies; And they write from Croatia, that the Imperial and Turkiſh Commiſſioners for ſettling the Limits, have renewed their Conferences for that purpoſe.

Dreſden, April 20. Upon the repeated Inſtances of Count Ahlefeld, Envoy from the King of Denmark, Orders are given to 5000 of the Saxon Forces which the King of Poland has agreed to ſend into the Daniſh Service, to be in a readineſs to march to Holſtein, and 3000 more will follow them in a ſhort time; And General Boſen is ſent to the Elector of Brandenburgh to obtain Paſſage for them through his Electoral Highneſs's Territories.
